Mike and his twin brother Mickey looked the same, but they were very different. Mike loved quiet reading, while Mickey loved loud music.

One day, Mike tried to read, but Mickey played his guitar too loudly. Mike had an idea. He put his book on the music stand in front of Mickey. Mickey laughed and tried to read the book with Mike. But Mickey read too fast and loud. Mike showed him how to read slowly and enjoy the story.

They both started to like each other's hobbies. Mike enjoyed music more, and Mickey enjoyed reading. They learned to share and have fun together. Now, their house was full of books and music. And lots of laughter, too!
