Story

Naoki is a young boy who dreams of becoming an astronaut. He loves looking at the stars and is determined to make his dream come true. To achieve this, Naoki works hard in school, especially in subjects like science and math. He always listens carefully to his teachers and asks them questions.

His parents are proud of him and support his dream of going to the moon. They often talk to Naoki about space and encourage him to continue studying and learning. In his free time, Naoki loves to read books and watch videos about space exploration. He also visits the planetarium to learn more about stars and galaxies.

Naoki knows that becoming an astronaut is a challenging goal, but he believes that he can do it with hard work and determination. Excited to continue learning and growing, Naoki looks forward to the incredible adventures that wait for him in the future.
