Story

Saya really likes fruit. Her mum buys lots of fruit for her. She eats apples, oranges, and bananas every day. She also likes to make fruit juice.

One day, Saya's mum brings home a new fruit. It's big and round, red and green. It's a watermelon. Saya is so happy. She cuts the watermelon and puts it in a blender. She adds a bit of sugar and some ice. Then, she turns on the blender. It's very loud. In a few minutes, the juice is ready.

Saya pours the juice into a glass and takes a sip. Her eyes light up. "Wow, this is the best juice ever!" she says. Excited, Saya decides to make watermelon juice for her friends next time. She can't wait to see their surprised faces!
