Story

Takashi is a junior high school student in Japan. He wakes up early every day to get ready for school. After breakfast, he puts on his uniform and walks to school with his friends. When he gets to school, he goes to his classroom and says "Good morning" to his teacher and classmates. Takashi studies many subjects at school, like math, science, and English. In his English class, he learns new English words and phrases. After school, Takashi likes to play soccer with his friends at the park. They speak English together while they play. When he gets home, he studies his homework and practices his English. Takashi likes learning English because he wants to travel to other countries someday. He hopes to make many international friends and speak English fluently.
