

Motorcycle explorer, Shinji Kazama

Do you know who Shinji Kazama is? (Yes, he's...)

Vocabulary

1. unique 2. planet 3. celebrate 4. protect 5. brave 6. achieved

True Story

Shinji Kazama is a special man from Japan. He really loves motorcycles. But he doesn't ride on regular roads. Instead, he chooses places that are very cold and _____!

Back in 1987, Shinji did something truly amazing. He took his motorcycle and rode all the way to the North Pole. Imagine riding in such cold weather, with so much ice everywhere! But Shinji was _____ and did it. Then, in 1992, he took another big trip and rode his motorcycle to the South Pole. That place was also very cold and challenging, but he _____ it.

Why does Shinji go to these places? It's because he wants to show people how beautiful our Earth is. Through his stories, he teaches us to care and _____ it. He's also visited hot deserts and tall mountains. Everywhere he goes, he _____s our _____'s beauty.

Quiz

- Where did Shinji ride his motorcycle in 1987?
- What does Shinji teach us through his stories?

True or False

- | | |
|--|--------------|
| 1. Shinji Kazama rode his motorcycle to the North Pole in 1992. | True False |
| 2. He visits cold places to show people the beauty of the Earth. | True False |
| 3. He has only been to cold places with his motorcycle. | True False |

Conversation

- Reporter: Shinji, is it true you rode to the North Pole?
 Shinji: Yes, in 1987. I needed some ice for my drink!
 Reporter: Hahaha, good one! Wasn't it cold out there?
 Shinji: Oh, it was freezing! But an amazing adventure.
 Reporter: What's next for you?
 Shinji: I want to ride my bike on the moon!

Discussion

- Would you like to travel on a motorcycle? Why or why not?
- What's the most exciting or unusual place you'd like to visit? Why?
- What are some simple things we can do every day to help protect our planet?