

Piano found on the UK's tallest mountain

Could you carry a piano up a mountain? (No way! That's impossible!)

Vocabulary

1. wrapper    2. close    3. cause    4. amazing    5. tallest    6. carried    7. charity

True Story

In May 2006, on Ben Nevis, the _____ mountain in the UK, some people found a piano _____ to the top.

These people, from the John Muir Trust, were there to clean the mountain. They were surprised to see a piano there. The piano was old, with a biscuit _____ under it from 1986. They didn't know how it got there.

Later, a man named Kenny Campbell said he put the piano there 35 years ago. He _____ it up and played a song at the top to raise money for _____. This was a big surprise for everyone and showed how people can do _____ things for a good _____.

Quiz

1. What did the people find on the mountain?
2. Why were the people on the mountain?
3. Who claimed to have put the piano on the mountain?
4. Why did the man put the piano on the mountain?

True or False

- |   |              |
|---|--------------|
| 1. The piano was found on Ben Nevis in 2006.                        | True   False |
| 2. The piano had a biscuit wrapper in it from 1986.                 | True   False |
| 3. Kenny Campbell built the piano on the mountain 35 years earlier. | True   False |

Conversation

- A: I can't believe we found a piano here!
- B: I know, right? Who would carry a piano all the way up here?
- A: Maybe someone really wanted to play music with a view.
- B: Or maybe they just wanted to leave something unexpected for us to find.
- A: Either way, it's a story we'll remember!
- B: Absolutely, it's not every day you find a piano on a mountain!

Discussion

1. Have you ever raised money for charity? What did you do?
2. Have you ever found something unexpected in a strange place?
3. Do you enjoy hiking? If so, what is your most memorable experience?
4. Can you play any musical instruments?