

Disneyland Safety

Disneyland is a popular place for tourists, so it can get very crowded. To control the crowds, there are signs and ropes directing people where to go, and staff members to keep everyone safe. For some attractions, they limit the number of people allowed into each waiting area. By doing so, Disneyland can be a fun and safe place for everyone to enjoy.

Your story should begin with this sentence: One day, Tomohiro and his friend were waiting in line for a ride at Disneyland.

Example Answers:

1. By limiting the number of people allowed into each area.
2. One day, Tomohiro and his friend were waiting in line for a ride at Disneyland. His friend said, "Why can those people go in before us?" Tomohiro was confused. Later that morning, the boys saw a ticket machine. The machine was selling express tickets. After lunch, Tomohiro and his friend walked to the front of the line. They were smiling and holding express tickets.
3. I agree. Many tourists go to the same places, so they become very crowded. I think they should visit some quieter places in the countryside.
4. Yes. I think social media is good for society because it helps people stay connected with friends who live far away. Also, it is useful for getting news and information quickly.
