

Queen selected for horse racing Hall of Fame

Vocabulary

Hall of Fame

to breed

to honour

dedication

Article

The Queen will be filled with pride after being selected for the official hall of fame for British horse racing, her racing manager has said.

Her Majesty, 95, who is known for her love of horses and racing, as well as being a successful owner and breeder, has been awarded the honour due to her lifelong dedication to the sport.

Sir Michael Stoute, who has trained more than 100 winners for Her Majesty, said she would be thrilled at the news.

Based on an Oct 11th, 2021 article from Daily Mail (All Rights Reserved) [dailymail.co.uk]

Quiz

1. When will the Queen be filled with pride?
2. What has Sir Michael Stoute done for the Queen?

Conversation

A: Hey Kazuko, are you going to watch the Grand National on Saturday?

B: Grand National? What's that? I've never heard of it.

A: Are you serious? It's the most famous horse race in the world!

B: Ohhh... is that the one with the women in the gorgeous hats?

A: That's the one!

Discussion

1. Do you know the British Royal Family? Who do you like the best?
2. Have you ever seen a horse race? What other live sports have you seen?
3. Do you gamble? What kind of gambling is there in Japan?
4. When was the last time you dressed up? Did you wear a gorgeous hat?