Article

In Brownsburg, Indiana, a pizza delivery turned into a big moment for Connor Stephanoff. During a snowstorm, Officer Richard Craig saw Connor walking over half a mile to deliver a pizza. Connor only got a $2 tip for a $40 order, even though he worked hard in the snow.

Officer Craig was surprised by Connor's dedication. "This level of dedication and work ethic is rare for most his age," he said. He shared Connor's story on TikTok, which got many views and comments from people wanting to help.

Officer Craig started a GoFundMe to support Connor. The goal was $500, but it raised over $20,000. This money will help Connor and his grandmother with their bills. "This is really going to get us in a spot where we can be really happy," Connor said.
